STYLEBEAT

OPEN SEASON

Sydney Michelle on Balboa Island has already grown out of its closet-sized boutique and is opening up a second locale right next door. Equally as cute and painted bright pink, the new digs will still have lots of Juicy, Seven, Lacoste and Development, in addition to new lines. "I like to think of the store as Juicy Headquarters. No one carries the selection we do," says owner Courtney Ellis. She's telling the truth. The new store will have a bath and body bar where you can create your own lotions with essential oils. Check out the grand expansion party May 15 at 6PM. 307 Marine Ave. Balboa Island. 949.673.2150.
